

Stilt Walking	Impact injury, potential broken limb	Participants		✓			✓		Medium	Stilt walkers wear knee pads One to one supervision until participants are trained to fall safely Equipment is maintained with suitable rubber etc Stilt walkers are supervised to ensure the environment is safe. Correct padding straps and clothing used
Performing Stilts	Friction	Third Party		✓			✓		Medium	Stilt walkers are competent before performing. Performance area has adequate management to keep stilt walkers a safe from the public

Unicycling	Impact injury, potential broken limb	Participants			✓	✓			Medium	Wrist guards are worn until participants can ride competently. Beginners have support when starting either from a wall or tutor to learn to initially turn the pedals. The environment is checked to be safe and the area for Unicycling is kept free from other equipment. An area of the workshop is identified for Unicycling. Equipment is checked and well maintained. Participants instructed in the correct falling procedure
Juggling/ diabolo/ devil stick hat, and other workshop equipment	Falling over equipment Being injured by a piece of equipment being thrown	Participants			✓	✓			Low	The environment kept clear of loose equipment on the floor Space is adequate and appropriate for the tasks being carried out. Workshops are adequately supervised to by experienced staff trained in delivering circus workshops

